SHIPPING NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

The Niagara of French Line Is

Bringing Many Spanish

Immigrants Here.

The officials of the White Star Line, both on this and the other side of the sea, believe the great reconditioned ship, with her oll burning equipment that enables her to run at a much steadler speed than is possible under the ccal burning system, may be depended upon to run practically on schedule, almost like a

The Niagara (H-10), one of the French Line's latest ships, is following the example of the American liners Manchuria (P-3) and Mongolia, the latter arriving at this port on Friday, by calling at Vigo for Spanish emigrants that are flocking to the United States to work on farms in the West.

The Scandinavian-American liner

United States (P-29), several days out from Copenhagen, is the second of the Danish passenger carriers to get to sea
